MUSIC CLUB: TUNE UP YOUR SKILLS AND CLEAR YOUR VOCAL CORDS

DUST off your old records and hone those public speaking skills for the launch of a new music appreciation group.

Musically Speaking will hold its first meeting next Tuesday for people to share their passion for music while also improving their presentation skills.

Members will present a range of segments in which they will speak about and play clips of music to do with either a genre, an artist, a piece, a composer, an album or an instrument.

There will also be a trivia quiz. And you don't need to be a musical prodigy to join, stresses the man behind the idea, Mt Gravatt's Peter Gieseemann.

Mr Gieseemann said the club was for those who loved music and wanted to share that with others. "We're looking for everyday people who just want to come along and enhance their music knowledge and enhance their presentation skills," he said.

"You can be involved as much or as little as you want to." Musically Speaking meets on the first and third Tuesday of every month at Upper Mt Gravatt Primary School.

ENJOY: Peter and Robbie Gieseemann say anyone can enjoy themselves at the club.
